

Rubber Boots And Shoes are Rationed Now

Because of a scarcity due to the rubber shortage, the Torrance War Price and Rationing Board was informed yesterday that men's rubber boots and rubber work shoes had been added to the list of rationed commodities obtainable by certificate only. All sales and shipments of rubber footwear were frozen at midnight Tuesday to prevent a buyers' "run" on the stocks now on hand. At the end of the "freeze" period on Monday, Oct. 5, when rationing to customers begins, the local War Price and Rationing Board will be open to workers and company purchasing agents who need certificates which entitle them to buy the rationed footwear.

Because most types of rubber footwear necessary for ordinary war can be made mostly from reclaimed rubber, there are many articles not rationed and can be purchased as usual. In this non-essential class are men's rubber boots and rubber work shoes smaller than size six, men's articles, work and dress rubbers.

POSTPONE MEETING
The P. E. Cheerio Club has postponed its regular meeting for one week to Oct. 9.

Steel Worker Dies Leaving Job

Telling a fellow-worker, Ted Jordan of Waleria, that he did not feel well and was going home, Denver Colorado, 42-year-old strander at the Columbia Steel plant, walked off the job Monday night. As he approached the rolling mill office he slumped to the ground and died almost at once as a result of a heart attack, according to police reports.

Mr. Judy was survived by his wife. He lived in Los Angeles. The body was removed to Pierce Bros. mortuary.

Columbia Steel Workers Break More Records

Continuing its all-out war effort, Columbia Steel Co. this week announced the establishment of several new steel production records.

At the Torrance plant, foundry castings for Government work were increased in August by 7.2%. The company also announced that since Dec. 7, the total of 116 production records had been broken in its Torrance and Pittsburg (Calif.) plants. At the Pittsburg works, production of electric furnace steel showed an increase for the fourth consecutive month in August. During that month production of this steel was stepped up 5.6%. Production of straight and cut products was also up 12.6% during this month, allowing for a heavy increase in welding wire for west coast shipyards. Similarly, the production of rods showed an increase of 1.3% for the month which will mean a greater increase in wire and nail products.

Kiwanians Elect Rahl President

JAMES RAHL

James Rahl, manager of the Safeway Store, was elected the 18th president of the Torrance Kiwanis club at the dinner-meeting Monday night. He is now completing a term as second vice president, song leader and member of the club's program and publicity committee. Kiwanians also re-elected Jack Barlington as first vice president and named Joe Klink as second vice president for the 1943 term. They will be installed at the first meeting in January. The seven directors elected were:

Roy Lougin, Ray Begue, Ryan Daggett, Henry Grubb, Charles McAllister, Jack Miller and C. T. Rippey. Howard Locke was re-elected treasurer. Kiwanians will join members of the Torrance Rotary club in a joint dinner meeting tonight when eight Alcoa executives here will present a motion picture showing the progress of aluminum manufacture and uses.

P.T.A. Council Opens Fall Term

The Lomita-San Pedro P. T. A. Council began its fall work with a meeting in the Cabrillo Avenue school at San Pedro recently. The speakers were Rev. A. W. MacFormick, Mrs. A. Koppenhaver, Council manager and chairman; Mrs. Roy Palmer, membership chairman, and Mrs. Charles Robertson, first vice president.

Mrs. J. J. Millard, president, conducted the meeting. Each Association president was asked to sponsor small groups for Halloween carnivals for children opening their early and closing at twilight.

Mrs. Robertson, Council program chairman, reported that programs for the year will be held as follows: Oct. 29 at the Harbor City school, Nov. 19 at the Bandini school, Dec. 17 at Waleria, Jan. 28 at Leland School, Feb. 25 at Torrance Elementary, March 25 at Barton Hill school, April 29 at Orange, May 27 at 15th St. school.

More Cartoons, Puzzles Wanted For Casualties

Scrap books of magazine cartoons and cross-word puzzles (with the correct answers) are now being compiled at the Torrance Recreation Center on Arlington ave., as a result of the response by local youngsters to the call for such material published last week.

But more cartoons and puzzles are wanted, Mrs. Cora Bohrer said today. All material should be neatly clipped so that it can be pasted in scrapbooks and turned over to military and naval hospitals for the amusement of wounded soldiers, sailors and marines.

END VACATION
Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Burger returned Friday from a week's vacation at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Haslam.

Benton Ends 18 Years at Mill

Ending 18 years' service at the Columbia Steel plant, Richard F. Benton, popular assistant electrical superintendent, resigned this week to accept another position on Oct. 1. Benton made many friends during his years at the local mill and he was "Dick" to hundreds of the men. Yesterday morning at the regular safety "huddle," he was presented with a fine wrist-watch from the men in token of their friendship and loyalty. Benton lives in Gardena with his wife and their three children, Richard, Evelyn and Freddie.

Torrance Matron Christens Ship

The S.S. Fitz-John Porter was launched at the Terminal Island yard of the California Shipbuilding Corp., last Sunday on the first anniversary of operations there that have sent 73 ships sliding down the ways. The anniversary vessel, named in honor of the Civil War general, was sponsored by Mrs. Jack Price, wife of the company's superintendent of hull outfitting. The Prices live at 1732 Andrea ave. Matron of honor at the christening of the huge ship was Mrs. Price's daughter, Mrs. William E. Coburn. Others from Torrance at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Calder, Mrs. R. J. Roberts, Mrs. Martha Coburn and Mrs. Kay Shelton.

The next regular city council session is scheduled for Tuesday night, Oct. 13, at 7:45 o'clock.
